 - a) controls, or jointly controls the company, or is controlled by or is under common control with that company;
 - b) is associated with the company or exercises significant influence over that company;

Art. 135 undecies

(Proxy designated by a listed company)

1. Unless the Corporate By-Laws stipulate otherwise, listed companies designate a proxy for each Shareholders' Meeting to which shareholders may grant an authorisation, by the end of the second day of market trading prior to the date set for the shareholders' meeting in first or second call, with voting instructions on all or some of the motions on the agenda. The authorisation is valid solely for proposals in relation to which voting instructions have been given.

Italian Civil Code

Art. 2393

(Corporate liability action)

A liability action against directors is initiated following a shareholders resolution, even if the company is in liquidation. The resolution on directors' liability may be voted when the annual report is being discussed, even if it is not among the list of items on the agenda, when it concerns events relating to the financial year to which the annual report also relates. The action may be brought within five years of a director leaving office. The liability action resolution results in the dismissal of the directors against whom it is directed, provided that it is approved with the vote in favour of at least one fifth of the share capital. In this event the shareholders' meeting itself must replace them. The company may abandon the liability action and negotiate a settlement, provided the abandonment and the settlement are approved with an explicit shareholders' resolution and provided there is no vote against by a minority of the shareholders which represents at least one fifth of the share capital or, in companies which make use of risk capital markets, at least one twentieth of the share capital, or the proportion established in the corporate by-laws for the initiation of a corporate liability action within the meaning of the first and second paragraphs of Art. 2393 bis.
